

Generated at 3/17/2019 22:56

CH14 5 .0 - Use Requirements and Restrictions

Preface

The purpose of this section is to set forth in detail the development standards and restrictions for those uses which are authorized and on which their continued authorization depends.

Each subsection deals with a particular development standard. These standards have been calculated to make good neighbors of different uses, to prevent nuisances, to promote the preservation of property values, and to provide sound, safe, compatible development for the general public good.